From Tuesday September 16, to Saturday September 20, 1746.

Kenſington, September 20.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentry and Freeholders of the County of Suſſex, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Ridge, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

And his Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Thomas Ridge, Eſq; the High Sheriff.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Suſſex, met at the Aſſizes held at Horſham, Auguſt the 25th, 1746.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and with the moſt unfeigned Joy to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the wiſe and brave Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt the Rebels, and on the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom. It is with the utmoſt Horror and Deteſtation we reflect upon the wicked and deſperate Attempts of thoſe Men, who, forgetful of their Duty and Allegiance to your Majeſty, and of the ineſtimable Bleſſings which theſe Nations enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, have openly joined with the declared Enemies of your Majeſty's Crown, in endeavouring to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution, and to introduce a popiſh and abjured Pretender. Animated with theſe Sentiments, we were determined, in the late Time of Danger, to have ſacrificed our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Family; upon which, we are fully perſuaded, the Preſervation of our moſt Holy Religion, our Liberties and Laws, entirely depend. And we humbly preſume on this Occaſion, to repeat the Aſſurances of our ſteady Perſeverance in the firmeſt Principles of Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty; and that we ſhall, at all Times, exert our utmoſt Endeavours to oppoſe and defeat the pernicious Deſigns of all your Majeſty's Enemies.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Cheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl Cholmondely: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders, aſſembled at the Aſſizes for the County Palatine of Cheſter, held at the Caſtle of Cheſter on the firſt Day of September 1746.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the ſignal Victory obtained at Culloden by your Majeſty's Forces, under the prudent Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, over a Band of unnatural and deſperate Rebels, who attempted no leſs than the Overthrow of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State.

We are perſuaded, that the glorious Spirit ſhewn by this Nation in Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, will for the Future diſcourage all Foreign or Domeſtick Enemies from attempting to diſturb the Peace and Tranquility of theſe Kingdoms.

May the Bleſſings we now enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Adminiſtration be continued to our lateſt Poſterity; and may there never never be wanting one of your Royal Houſe to reign over us to protect and defend the Religious and Civil Rights of theſe Nations.

Stockholm, September 2. Yeſterday Morning his Swediſh Majeſty came to Town from Ekelſund, as did the Prince and Princeſs Royal from Droningholm.

Copenhagen, Sept. 17, N. S. This Morning, about Four o'Clock, the Body of the late King of Denmark, which had been embalmed ſoon after his Deceaſe, was conveyed hither privately from Hirſcholm, and lies now in State under a moſt magnificent Canopy erected in the Chapel of Chriſtiansburg. There it is to continue till the 4th of next Month, and then to be transferred, with the uſual Solemnities, to Roſchild, in order to be depoſited in the Royal Vault there.

Berlin, Sept. 17, N. S. The King of Pruſſia arrived here on Tueſday laſt, and gave Audience to the Foreign Miniſters the next Morning. His Majeſty ſeems to be intirely recovered from his late Illneſs. Wedneſday and Thurſday his Majeſty was on the Parade, and ſaw the Soldiers perform the new Exerciſe, which was done with great Exactneſs; and Yeſterday he returned to Potzdam. M. Wolfſtiern, the Swediſh Miniſter at Dreſden, is expected here on his Way home.

Heerderen Camp, Sept. 18, N. S. The 14th Inſtant, at Three in the Morning, we filed off from our Camp of Bombay in two Columns from the Right, that is, the Auſtrians, Hannoverians, Heſſians, and Britiſh, according to the Order of Incampment, croſſed the Maeſe below Maeſtricht upon two Bridges of Pontoons begun this Morning about One of the Clock, and finiſhed about Seven, when the Head of the two Columns arrived there. We paſſed as faſt as poſſible, but as the Cavalry were obliged to diſmount and lead their Horſes over, it was paſt Four in the Afternoon before we got quite on the Brabant Side of this River. We encamped our Right beyond Gelick, and our Left near the River Jaar, between Maeſtricht and the Village of Wilſe. The Dutch began their March at Nine the Evening before in two Lines, and paſſed upon our left Flank, and at a ſmall Diſtance from our Front. They began to paſs the Maeſe juſt as we did, one Column through Maeſtricht, and the other by a Bridge of Pontoons above the Town. They encamped their Right near Fort St. Pierre, and their Left towards Lichtenberg, the Jaar in their Front. Marſhal Saxe expecting us to paſs at Viſet, came with all poſſible Expedition, and drew up his Troops in order of Battle upon the Eminence oppoſite to Viſet, with an Intent to fall upon us when a Part had paſſed; but when he found that he miſtook the Point, either through Miſinformation or otherwiſe, he marched back with all poſſible Diligence to his Camp of Betou, cloſe to Tongres, placing his Right there, and his Left towards St. Tron. He left three Detachments upon the Jaar, viz. at Nedrin, Sling, and Hautain, to watch our Motions on that Side.

The 15th, the Remainder of our Artillery and Baggage joined us.

The 16th, Prince Charles, the Marſhal, Sir John Ligonier, and many more, went towards Tongres to reconnoitre the Enemy's Poſition.

The 17th, our Army marched in eight Columns, and encamped our Right upon a high Ground in the Front of Roeſmeer, and our Left behind Millen, the Head Quarters at Heerderen. The Dutch encamped upon an Eminence between our left Flank and the Jaar, towards Baſenge. Before we were quite incamped, the Enemy drew off their Detachments from Hautain and Sling, and ſoon after that at Nedrin, and immediately changed their Situation, placing their Right near Tongres, and their Left at Bilſen, behind the Demer. They have made Redoubts and Batteries, particularly at Tongrebergh, and between it and Tongres.

Laſt Night General Trips, with the Corps under his Command, had a ſmart Engagement with a conſiderable Body of the French on a Paſs at Hoesfeld on the Demer, but finding himſelf overpowered by Numbers, he retired in good Order.

Heerderen Camp, Sept. 21, N. S. We are now ſo near the Enemy, that Yeſterday they fired about 50 Cannon Shot into our Camp.

Hague, Sept. 23, N. S. M. Gilles having accepted the Poſt of Penſionary of Holland, entered upon the Functions of it this Morning. Several Letters from Liege and Maeſtricht agree in fixing the Surrender of the Town of Namur to the 19th Inſtant. It is preſumed that the Garriſon has betaken itſelf to the Cittadel. Marſhal Saxe maintains his Poſt at Tongres, and has rendered it very ſtrong by Retrenchments and Artillery. It is ſuppoſed the Allied Army continue likewiſe in their late Poſition, as the Dutch ſtill lay at Nederkan on the 20th Inſtant.

Hague, Sept. 26, N. S. The Surrender of the Town of Namur is confirmed, but we have not yet learnt the particular Articles of the Capitulation. There is an Account, that the French had left 15000 Men in that Town, with a conſiderable Train of Artillery, in order to batter the Cittadel; and that the reſt of the Army, which had been employed in the Siege, was to join that under Marſhal Saxe immediately. We have received from Paris the following Heads of the Capitulation, ſigned by the Deputies of the Senate of Genoa, with the Auſtrian General.

To deliver up the Gate of St. Pierre d'Arena to the Auſtrians.

To make a Preſent of 50000 Genouins to the Army immediately.

To wait for Orders from Vienna with regard to the Contributions to be raiſed.

And

And to make no Changes in the Government till Orders be received from thence.

To deliver up the Fortreſs of Gavi.

That all Troops in any Caſtles or Towns, belonging to the Genoeſe, ſhall be deemed Priſoners of War.

That all the Cannon in Genoa ſhall be given up to the Queen of Hungary.

That for the Future the Genoeſe ſhall not permit the Queen's Enemies to paſs through the Territories of the Republick.

That four of the moſt conſiderable Perſons in the Republick ſhall be ſent as Hoſtages to Milan.

That the Doge and ſix Senators ſhall be at Liberty to ſet out for Vienna, to ask Pardon of the Queen, and to implore her Majeſty's Clemency.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Sept. 18. The Court changes Mourning on Sunday next the 21ſt Inſtant,

For the late King of Spain,

The late Dauphineſs of France,

And for the late King of Denmark.

The Men to wear Black full trimmed, black Swords and Buckles, fringed or plain Linnen.

The Ladies to wear black Silk or Velvet, fringed or plain Linnen, black or white Fans or Shoes.

London, September 1, 1746.
